Data Protection Act 1998 : How we use your information

We Amblecote Primary School are the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act. We process personal information relating to our pupils and may receive information about them from their previous school or college, local authority, the Department for Education (DfE) and the Learning Records Service. We hold this personal data to:

- support our pupils' learning
- monitor and report on their progress
- provide appropriate pastoral care; and
- assess the quality of our services

Information about our pupils that we hold will include their contact details, national curriculum assessment results, attendance information, any exclusion information, where they go after they leave us and personal characteristics such as their ethnic group, any special educational needs they may have as well as relevant medical information.

Where you have a care plan that has been set up in partnership with Health Services and the school, this may be shared with staff within the school environment to ensure that it is adhered to correctly. It may be held on the Schools computer systems.

Where you have been involved in an accident, an Accident/Incident Report Form will be completed which will include details of the accident including information about you. This information will be passed to the Corporate Health and Safety Team at Dudley MBC. This information will be accessed by Dudley MBC employees, who legally require access to this data, for purposes related to this incident, and may be shared with others to allow us to comply with our statutory duties'.

We will not give information about you to anyone without your consent unless the law and our policies allow us to.

If you want to see a copy of the information we hold and share about you then please contact Ann Mason. If you require more information about how the school collects and uses your information, then please go to the school website:

<http://www.amblecote.dudley.sch.uk>

If you are unable to access this website a copy of this information can be sent to you

We are required by law to pass some information about you to our Local Authority (LA) and the Department for Education.

If you need more information about how our LA and/or DfE collect and use your information, then please go to the following websites:
