

Dudley Anti-Bullying Pledge Scheme

Anti-Bullying Policy for Amblecote School

Objectives

This policy outlines what Amblecote will do to prevent and tackle bullying. The policy has been drawn up through the involvement of the whole school community and we are committed to developing an anti-bullying culture bullying will not be tolerated.

Our school community will:

- Discuss, monitor and review our anti-bullying policy on a regular basis.
- Support all staff to promote positive relationships and identify and tackle bullying appropriately.
- Ensure that our students are aware that all bullying concerns will be dealt with sensitively and effectively; that students feel safe to learn; and abide by the anti-bullying policy.
- Report back to parents/carers regarding their concerns on bullying and deal promptly with complaints. Parents/carers in turn work with the school to uphold the anti-bullying policy.
- Seek to learn from good anti-bullying practice elsewhere and utilise support from the Local Authority and other relevant organisations when appropriate.

Definition of bullying

Bullying is “Behaviour by an individual or a group, usually repeated over time, that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally”.

Bullying can include: name calling; taunting; mocking; making offensive comments; kicking; hitting; taking belongings; producing offensive graffiti; gossiping; excluding people from groups, and spreading hurtful and untruthful rumours. This includes the same inappropriate and harmful behaviours expressed via digital devices (cyber bullying) such as the sending of inappropriate messages by phone, text, Instant Messenger, through web-sites and social networking sites, and sending offensive or degrading images by phone or via the internet.

Forms of bullying covered by this Policy

Bullying can happen to anyone. This policy covers all types of bullying, whether face to face or in cyberspace, including:

- Bullying related to race, religion or culture.
- Bullying related to LDD (learning difficulties or disability).
- Bullying related to appearance or health conditions.
- Bullying related to sexual orientation (homophobic bullying).
- Bullying of young carers or looked after children or otherwise related to home circumstances.
- Sexist, sexual and transphobic bullying.

Preventing, identifying and responding to bullying

The school community will:

- Work with staff and outside agencies to identify all forms of bullying.
- Actively provide systematic opportunities to develop students' social and emotional skills, including their resilience.
- Consider all opportunities for addressing bullying including through the curriculum, displays, assemblies, peer support and through the School Council.
- Train all staff including lunchtime staff, learning mentors and support staff to identify bullying and follow school policy and procedures, including recording incidents.
- Actively create "safe spaces" for vulnerable children and young people.
- Use a variety of interventions to resolve the issues between those who bully and those who have been bullied.

Involvement of students

We will:

- Regularly seek children and young people's views on the extent and nature of bullying.
- Ensure pupils/students know how to express worries and anxieties about bullying.
- Ensure all pupils/students are aware of the range of sanctions which may be applied against those engaging in bullying.
- Involve pupils/students in anti-bullying campaigns in schools.
- Publicise the details of help-lines and websites.
- Offer support to students who have been bullied and to those who are bullying in order to address the problems they have.

Liaison with parents and carers

We will:

- Ensure that all parents /carers know who to contact if they are worried about bullying.
- Ensure all parents know about our complaints procedure and how to use it effectively.
- Ensure all parents /carers know where to access independent advice about bullying.
- Work with all parents and the local community to address issues beyond the school gates that lead to bullying.
